DESCRIPTION

The Windgate Fellowship Award program was established by the Center for Craft, Creativity & Design (CCCD) to encourage and advance the development of serious, innovative artists in the United States whose work is in some way related to, or informed by, the processes, materials, traditions, and/or sensibilities of craft. The award is designed to advance the understanding of craft by encouraging and supporting research, scholarship, and professional development. This is one of the largest awards offered nationally to art students.

Each year, the Center invites over 100 Colleges and Universities across the United States to participate in the program. These institutions are invited to nominate two graduating seniors with exemplary skill in craft to compete in the national award competition. Ten graduating seniors will be selected by a Windgate panel representing curators, artists, and faculty to receive a $15,000 award. Following the award, Fellows are required to submit a brief progress report and budget update when they request fund withdrawals (up to three). They may also be invited to contribute to a blog.

To view the work of previous Windgate Fellows visit: <http://www.craftcreativitydesign.org/grants/windgate-fellowship/>

As per Windgate, this Fellowship is considered income by the IRS and is reported for the year(s) in which you receive funding.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Successful applicants will demonstrate a balance of content and design, and a mastery of materials. Artists should show innovation and curiosity, be committed to growth of their own work, and demonstrate evidence of how their work might stimulate creative thinking or dialogue among other artists. Selection criteria are based in artistic merit, the future promise of the applicant's work, and the potential for the applicant to make significant contributions to the field of craft.
